

BY THE
Lord Lieutenant
AND
C O U N C I L,

O R M O N D E!

Proclamation having lately issued from this Board, bearing Date the Sixteenth day of October last, whereby all Titular Popish Archbishops, Bishops, Vicars General, Abbots, and other Dignitaries of the Church of Rome, and all others exercising Jurisdiction, or who have exercised any Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction in this Kingdom by any Authority derived from the Pope or See of Rome; and also all Jesuites, and other Regular Priests, were commanded by or before the Twentieth day of this instant November, to depart out of this Realm. And We being resolved to cause Our Commands therein contained, to be strictly and punctually observed.

To the end therefore that none of the persons thereby required to depart out of this Kingdom, may pretend want of convenience for their passage into Foreign Parts, We do hereby charge and require all Owners and Masters of any Ships, That before the said Twentieth day of this instant November, shall be ready to set sail for any Parts beyond the Seas out of His Majesties Dominions, That they do forthwith set up notice in writing in the most publick places of the severall Cities, Towns and Ports from whence such Ships shall be so ready to set sail, of the severall Ports and places whereunto such Ships shall be bound, and of the time when every of them shall be ready to set sail out of this Kingdom.

And We do also straightly charge and command the severall and respective Owners and Masters of all such Ships, That they do receive aboard, and carry with them, all such of the said Popish Archbishops, Bishops, Dignitaries, Abbots, Jesuites, Regular Priests, and other persons so required to depart out of this Kingdom, as shall desire, or offer themselves to go along with them, and that they afford them conveniencies for their passage beyond the Seas, upon the same terms as they usually carry other Passengers. And in case notice shall be given to any of the Officers of His Majesties Customs in any Port of this Realm, from whence any such Ship shall be ready to set sail, that any Owner or Master of such Ship, shall refuse to receive aboard, or carry away any of the said persons so required to depart out of this Realm, the severall and respective Officers of His Majesties Customs in every such Port, are hereby required to stop every such Ship from setting sail, or going out of this Realm, until they shall take aboard, and carry away with them all such of the said persons so commanded to depart out of this Realm, as shall desire, or offer themselves to go along with them. And all Mayors, and other Head-officers of the severall Sea-port Towns in this Kingdom, and all His Majesties Officers of the Customs are to take care of the due Execution hereof, and are also to certify unto Us the names of such Owners and Masters of any Ships or Vessels, as shall neglect or refuse to give obedience hereunto.

Given at the Council-Chamber in Dublin the Sixth day of November, 1678.
